What are the most relevant terms in this research question?

‘How can the teaching environment be changed to improve learning outcomes for dyslexic students?’

What are the most relevant terms in this research question?

‘Give a comprehensive and clear overview of literacy and the Irish traveller community in the 21st century.’

What is a peer-reviewed journal?

a. A learning diary discussed in seminars
b. An academic periodical reviewed by experts
c. A blog article with comments from readers

True or false? Other people’s opinions are not a valid source of information for an academic assignment.

False. Opinions can form useful primary data, and experts’ opinions can offer important insights into a topic.

How long does it typically take to publish an academic book?

a. 1-2 weeks
b. 1-2 months
c. 1-2 years

different types of information are typically published at different speeds. Put these in order of speed, fastest first.

a. An encyclopaedia
b. A journal article
c. A newspaper article
c. b, a

Which of the following is a primary source of information?

a. Song lyrics
b. Answers to a questionnaire
c. Data from a scientific experiment
d. All of the above

True or false? You can find all the information you need on the internet if you know how to look for it.

False. Not all information is published on the internet.

Google will find:

a. All websites published on the World Wide Web
b. All websites published in the last 5 years
c. All websites in Google’s index
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>seek!</th>
<th>seek!</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>seek!</td>
<td>seek!</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>seek!</td>
<td>seek!</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>seek!</td>
<td>seek!</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Nominate another player to pick a wildcard

What are the most relevant terms in this research question?

‘Give an overview of the impacts of climate change on the Gulf of Mexico region water cycle.’

What are the most relevant terms in this research question?

‘What represents value for money for university students in the UK?’

What are the most relevant terms in this research question?

‘How do changes in a mother’s diet during pregnancy affect the health and on-going development of the infant?’

What are the most relevant terms in this research question?

‘Is research involving the use of embryos ethically acceptable?’ embryos and ethically are two separate terms

What are the most relevant terms in this research question?

‘Discuss fully the key benefits of the use of a mobile computing device in an educational setting’

What are the most relevant terms in this research question?

‘Discuss the side effects of consuming food and drinks containing caffeine on expectant mothers.’

What are the most relevant terms in this research question?

‘Should advertising be banned on children’s television?’

What are the most relevant terms in this research question?

‘Give an overview of the effects of the War on Terror on race relations in West Yorkshire.’

What are the most relevant terms in this research question?

‘Does social media impact on political engagement of the population of developing countries?’
Name two broader terms for television.

Accept media, broadcasting, telecommunication or another answer that the other players agree with.

Pick a wildcard

Pick a wildcard

Pick a wildcard

Nominate another player to pick a wildcard

Nominate another player to pick a wildcard

Nominate another player to pick a wildcard
Your tutor recommends a book but doesn’t tell you which page(s) to read. What’s the best course of action?

a. Read a review of the book in an academic journal
b. Read the introduction
c. Look at the Contents Page and Index for relevant topics
d. Read the whole book

Name three risks when quoting information from unchecked websites in your assignments.

a. Bias, spoof or intentionally misleading, out-of-date, too little detail, unverified facts or data.
Accept any that the other players agree.

Name two narrower terms for a mobile computing device.

Accept laptop, portable computer, netbook, Smartphone, iPhone, tablet computer/PC, iPad, PDA or another answer that the other players agree with.

Your assignment contains the words ‘in an Educational Setting’. How many synonyms can you think of?

You gain a point for each synonym that the other players agree with, with a maximum of 5 points. 60 second time limit!

Your assignment contains the words ‘Climate Change’. How many synonyms can you think of?

You gain a point for each synonym that the other players agree with, with a maximum of 5 points. 60 second time limit!

Your assignment contains the words ‘Nutrition’. How many synonyms can you think of?

You gain a point for each synonym that the other players agree with, with a maximum of 5 points. 60 second time limit!

Your assignment contains the words ‘Young People’. How many synonyms can you think of?

You gain a point for each synonym that the other players agree with, with a maximum of 5 points. 60 second time limit!

Which search would return the most results?

a. Well-being AND health
b. Well-being OR health
c. Well-being AND health AND happiness
d. Well-being OR health OR happiness

You need to find the latest, relevant information about a new product. Which of these would be a good place to look?

a. The library catalogue
b. A peer-reviewed journal article
c. A trade journal
d. All of the above

Where is the best place to find a definition of a term you do not understand?

a. Reading list
b. Database
c. Dictionary or encyclopaedia
d. Peer-reviewed journal
Which search would return the fewest results?
a. Enterprises OR businesses
b. Enterprises AND businesses
c. Enterprises OR businesses OR firms
d. Enterprises AND businesses AND firms

What are the most relevant terms in this research question?
‘Discuss the potential and actual impacts of alcohol on student well-being.’

You’re starting a new module. Where’s the first place to get guidance on what to read?
a. Your library search engine
b. Google
c. Reading list
d. Librarian

What are the most relevant terms in this research question?
‘Can changes in nutrition improve memory formation in children?’

Which symbol would you usually use to return words with different endings of the same ‘stem’ word? e.g. advertising and advertisement
a. ?
b. +
c. * (e.g. advertis*)
d. /

Nominate another player to pick a wildcard
seek!
seek!
seek!
seek!
seek!
seek!
seek!
seek!
You failed to note the details of the article you found, so you spend two hours trying to find it again. Lose 2 points for wasting time.

You searched Google instead of your library search engine and find loads of relevant materials quickly. Gain 1 point for a quick search... but lose 3 points because your assignments didn’t contain enough scholarly references.

You quoted information from another author, without acknowledging them properly. Lose 2 points for cheating.

The website you quoted as fact turns out to be the biased opinion of a pressure group. Lose 2 points for failing to check.

You have a really good talk with your subject librarian about your search. Gain double points for the rest of the game.

You kept notes of everything you referred to in your assignment, which saved time preparing your reference list. Gain 2 points for being efficient.
You made sure you understood your research title before you started searching for information.

Gain 2 points for improving your knowledge.

You used some relevant and interesting material that wasn’t on your reading list.

Gain 2 points for delighting your tutor.

You combined two synonyms with OR and returned even more relevant search results.

Gain 2 points for mastering Boolean logic.

You kept notes of everything you referred to in your assignment, which saved time preparing your reference list.

Gain 2 points for being efficient.

You didn’t turn up to any of your research skills sessions.

Score half points for the rest of the game.

You combined two synonyms with OR and returned even more relevant search results.

Gain 2 points for mastering Boolean logic.

Pick a wildcard

Nominate another player to pick a wildcard